The award was sponsored by the Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA) designation, which was created in 2012 by the AICPA and CIMA to help people and businesses succeed by producing and recognizing competent and confident management accounting professionals able to steer business and lead their organizations to make better decisions.

The Greatest Potential Impact on Management Accounting Practice Award recognizes academic research considered to most likely have a significant impact on management accounting. Eligible papers must have been published within the previous five years and submitted by the authors, or nominated by peers.
