Bill.com – www.bill.com

From the March 2017 review of Invoice Management systems.

Well known for its robust AP automation function, Bill.com also offers a decent payment processing platform as well. Bill.com provides users with the ability to choose their preferred payment method and will automatically send invoices to customers indicating those payment choices. Invoices are sent via secure email, but the application will also send paper bills for customers that do not want to receive invoices via email.

Automatic payment reminders are sent to customers prior to when payment is due, and all online payments received by Bill.com are automatically deposited into the business bank account the next business day. The product also handles recurring payments as well.

Overdue notices are also emailed automatically, and Bill.com can handle recurring
