Centreviews offers AP, AR, and Document Management delivered via the cloud. Centreviews is designed to link all business invoices with their supporting documents. The linked documents are then stored in a centralized, searchable archive, where users can access them at any time. The application will also deliver both electronic and paper bills to customers.

While Centreviews isn't suitable for everyone, it can be very useful for businesses with multiple locations, or those that have a high number of supporting documents that need to be matched with invoices, such as construction companies and
