

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us individuals and a Sacramento accounting firm in recognition of their services to the profession or to the public.

Aug. 08, 2017

CalCPA

The California Society of CPAs (CalCPA.org) recently presented awards to three individuals and a Sacramento accounting firm in recognition of their services to the profession or to the public.

William J. Harrison, CPA, of Harrison Accounting Group, Fremont, California, has received the Public Service Award. Harrison, a former Fremont mayor, worked with developers, nonprofits and community leaders to increase the amount of affordable

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Donald A Driftmier, CPA, of Ontario, California, has accepted the Distinguished Service Award. A CalCPA member since 1971, Driftmier has been involved in various activities and leadership roles on the chapter, state and national level. In 2004 Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger appointed Driftmier to the California Board of Accountancy, where he served as CPA president in 2008. He is in his ninth and last year on the board. He chaired the ethics curriculum requirement for licensure in California and served on several other committees.

Nancy Mangold, Ph.D., of Hayward, California, has received the Outstanding Educator Award. Mangold is an award-winning professor at California State University, East Bay, where she's also chair of the department of accounting and finance. Along with other faculty, she created and launched the master of science in accountancy program at CSU, East Bay, in 2013. She also was instrumental in designing the MSA program curriculum to help students meet the education units required for both the CPA exam and California CPA licensure requirements.

Accounting

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved