States, ranks No. 3 among companies on WayUp's first-ever Top 100 list of internship programs.

Aug. 24, 2017

CohnReznick LLP, one of the leading accounting, tax and advisory firms in the United States, ranks No. 3 among companies on WayUp's first-ever Top 100 list of internship programs.

The Firms' internship program has several key components:

- Interns are assigned projects on real client engagements across industries such as renewable energy, technology, life sciences, and real estate.
- Interns are provided professional development opportunities through the Firm's "Imagine More Series" which is a suite of learning modules designed to bring to life CohnReznick's PYRAMID Values and showcase how those values are applicable to their everyday lives as interns.
- CohnReznick's internship program is designed with the importance of performance feedback in mind. Young professionals ask for constant feedback because they want to do better and be successful. Therefore, through the program, interns get feedback in real time which allows them to perform better and make the necessary improvements as they go.
- The program keeps the big picture in mind by allowing interns to experience what a career at CohnReznick would look like.

"We are honored that our internship program has been recognized among the best in the nation," said Imad Khoury, National Director of Talent Development,

CohnReznick. “As a firm, we take pride in our internship program and are committed
