Rogers & Company a public accounting firm with offices in Vienna, Virginia and Los Angeles, California announced they have been selected to join CPAsNET, a prestigious network of exceptional accounting firms. Fewer than 30 firms in the nation have the opportunity to be invited to join this elite organization. Rogers & Company is a public accounting and consulting firm comprised of diverse professionals who bring together the best practices, experiences, and service concepts to deliver premier assurance, tax and consulting services to their clientele.

CPAsNET is a leading consortium of independent accounting firms that represent more than 100 partners, 300 professional associates and 500 employees. CPAsNET's global reach represents more than 120 firms in 93 countries all over the world. Member firms have pooled their resources to provide their clients with the local, national and international prospective needed to prosper in challenging markets and times.

Rogers & Company was selected based on a number of criteria, including the expertise and business acumen they provide to their clients in the Northern Virginia Area community. Through their membership in CPASNET, they are able to provide their clients with the multitude of resources available only from one of the Nation's largest accounting and business consulting networks.

"Rogers & Company is committed to offering innovative business solutions and accounting guidance at an exceptional value. Learning what other successful firms are doing will enhance our ability to succeed," explains Darrin Rogers, Managing Partner at Rogers & Company, on why they chose to join CPAsNET. "We are looking forward to being a member."
