accounting firm to best reflect their needs.

Integer offers a good selection of automated content for accounting firms, including a client newsletter, which can be published on the website monthly. Content can be customized to better suit the firm's clientele, and an automated subscriber list helps to manage newsletter subscriptions. More than 50 tools and calculators are available to offer clients, including a Cash Flow Calculator, Mortgage Qualifier, Mortgage Loan Calculator, Loan Comparison Calculator, Working Capital Needs, Business Valuation, ARM versus Fixed Rate Mortgage, 1040 Tax Calculator, Earned Income Credit (EIC) Calculator, Estate Tax Planner, Roth vs. Traditional IRA, Retirement Shortfall, Credit Assessment, Home Budget Analysis, Student Budget, Net Worth, Savings and Investments, Savings Calculator, and Vehicle Financing calculator tools, along with others.

All Integer subscribers receive a free domain name as part of the service, or users can simply connect their current or existing domain directly to the website. All firms receive up to 20 email accounts that include the firm domain in the email address. Users can also opt to forward emails to an existing email address, if desired.

Integer offers easy content editing capability, using the content editor, which does not require any custom formatting skills. A Site Wizard is available that guides users through the customization process, including the ability to choose site appearance and page content options as well as client management options that will be placed on the website. Firms can change templates at any time, or add additional pages to the website as they desire. Custom graphics can also be added to any web page, and Integer offers more than 200 professional images that can be used at no cost on any website created. Video options are also supported as well.

Integer also offers custom-built web design, with custom service fees charged in addition to the regular monthly subscription.

Integer offers users a series of SEO optimization tips, along with some online
