time sheets for each employee, with users able to run timesheet reports by employee, job, or task. Reports are can be easily configured to reflect a specific date range, and notes can be included in the report as well.

All reports can be exported to a CSV file, or saved as a PDF if desired. Clock Shark allows users to easily sync jobs and service items directly from QuickBooks to Clock Shark. Supervisors and managers can also export timesheets created in Clock Shark directly into QuickBooks for easy processing.

Users have easy access to Clock Shark's support page, which offers a Knowledge Base, Getting Started instructions and guidance, and a video library that provides short instructional videos that cover basic tasks. Phone support is available during regular business hours, with phone support available to U.S. and Canadian customers only. Clock Shark pricing includes a base price, which is $20.85, plus $4.17 for a single user. The price per user drops as more uses are added. Users also have the option to pay for the service annually, with a slight cost savings offered.
