Jul. 12, 2018

Wolters Kluwer Tax & Accounting is offering the timely live webinar, Sales Tax Nexus – Post Wayfair, hosted by internationally recognized tax expert Mark Friedlich, Esq, CPA and Senior Director Corporate Indirect Tax at Wolters Kluwer Tax & Accounting, North America. Friedlich has been a leading practitioner of indirect taxation in the U.S. and abroad for decades.

In the wake of the U.S. Supreme Court's recent decision in South Dakota v. Wayfair, Inc. that ruled that physical presence nexus is no longer required to collect sales tax, it's critical for businesses and their tax and accounting professionals to have a firm understanding of the significant implications for all organizations conducting eCommerce.

During this webinar, Friedlich, who has the distinction of being an invited guest at the oral arguments before the Supreme Court at both the Quill and Wayfair cases, will share his expert insights and answer questions. Attendees will walk away with an understanding of what happened, what it means, and the actions businesses and their tax advisors should take now and in the future. As such, the webinar will address both short-term and potential long-term consequences.

Two webinar sessions are available:

- Sales Tax Nexus – Post Wayfair, Wednesday, July 18, 1:00 p.m. Eastern Time
