Certify, the largest independent provider of expense management software, has opened an office in London, its first office in the United Kingdom. The Certify London office will serve as a beacon to the U.K. and European travel and expense management market, which analyst firm KBV Research has forecasted for growth of 9.7 percent CAGR between 2017-2023.

Certify has been growing its international presence with an emphasis in the U.K. and Europe. British multinational software company, The Sage Group, standardized on Certify in 2016, and earlier this year Certify announced a partnership with Western Union to provide its business payment capabilities to non-U.S. customers. In addition, Certify recently acquired Captio, Europe's leading independent expense management provider. The combined family of expense management brands under
