More than two dozen minority accounting students spent part of their winter break learning skills to help advance their future careers. Last week they participated in the Illinois CPA Society's highly competitive Mary T. Washington Wylie Internship Preparation Program, which provides three days of training, resources and mentorship for selected applicants. The primary goal is to prepare students with the

The Internship Preparation Program is funded by donations to the CPA Endowment Fund of Illinois' Mary T. Washington Wylie Opportunity Fund.

Mary T. Washington Wylie, the first African-American female CPA in the country, was a trailblazer for minorities in the accounting profession. This program bearing her name advances diversity within the profession by building skills and presenting new opportunities for minority accounting students to be successful.

The CPA Endowment Fund of Illinois is a 501 (c) (3) charitable organization founded in 1998 by Illinois CPA Society members. The fund was created to assure a strong, talented, and diverse CPA profession by encouraging students to choose accounting as a career choice and become a CPA. By supporting students, particularly those in need, the fund seeks to help students achieve the CPA credential through
