Grant Thornton

Deltek, a global provider of software and solutions for project-based businesses, has entered into a strategic alliance with Grant Thornton LLP, a leading professional services firm. The alliance will help both public and private companies of all sizes, including government contractors, to comply with accounting rules, regulations and standards using both technology and expertise.

Grant Thornton, itself a government contractor, will complement and extend Deltek's Global Consulting capabilities – allowing the two companies to jointly deploy purpose-built, project-centric systems, including Deltek Enterprise Resource Planning, Project & Portfolio Management, and Talent Management solutions.

More specifically, Grant Thornton will provide Deltek's customers with specialized know-how in systems integration, change management, finance optimization, digital transformation, compliance and business consulting. A broad range of Deltek clients that service the government stand to benefit from Grant Thornton's specialization in government contract compliance – including professional-services companies, manufacturers, high-tech services companies and engineering firms.

“Government contractors can now tap into an integrated team that utilizes Deltek's solutions and applies Grant Thornton's acumen in transformation, change management and compliance,” said Greg Wallig, Grant Thornton's Metro DC-

Arlington office managing principal. “It’s important to have the best solutions and
