Some clients are more advanced than others, and with Crest, you can treat them appropriately. Those who you've granted permission can log into the secure system from your own firm website and enter employee time, add rates or perform other tasks.
- Your Payroll Service, Your Brand – With Crest Payroll's Private Label option, accounting firms can tailor the web-based payroll system to reflect only their own branding and messaging, with formatting and templates that reflect their firm's website.
- Employee Self-Service – Just as you benefit from allowing your clients to do some of the data entry, allowing employees to have self-service capability is another great time saving feature for your firm. Employees can log into the secure system and download prior paystubs, W-2s, 1099s, W-4s and other personal information. They can also access employee handbooks or any other documents that the client company wishes to make available on-demand to its employees. Employees can also fill in time-off requests, with the program automatically routing it to the appropriate
