RetailSTAR Point of Sale software provides a simple, affordable and powerful solution that automates the movement of inventory in your brick-and-mortar store or Internet store. This includes managing inventory, selling inventory via sales orders or point-of-sale transactions, customer tracking, an integrated web storefront and accounting.

Today, RetailSTAR Point of Sale Software is the only retail system that doesn't just handle your sales and inventory, it automates the rest of your business as well. It is the only retail system that can automate all of your sales channels and provide you with a real-time Balance Sheet and Profit & Loss statement at the end of the day. As you evaluate software to automate your store, you'll soon learn that RetailSTAR Point of Sale software is "the standard by which all others are measured."
