"This is a pinnacle year in which we've seen 51 years of sales tax rulings unravel with the S. Dakota v. Wayfair ruling, and predictions we've made in past years are now coming to fruition, with states passing new legislation in domino fashion and complexity abounding for businesses," said Steve Parish, principal and sales and use tax automation national lead at RSM US LLP. "CRUSH19 will play an important and very timely role in convening the best minds in the industry to educate, inform and help guide attendees on a broad range of compliance topics. RSM is committed to working closely with Avalara to further our clients' knowledge and understanding of key transactional tax concepts and trends, better guide their tax compliance strategy, and help reduce risk. We're truly pleased to sponsor and participate in CRUSH19."

Other CRUSH sponsors include:

- DMA is a Platinum sponsor.
- KSM LLC, PM Business Advisors, Right Networks, Sage, Sage Intacct, and Smart ERP are Gold sponsors.
