

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us taxpayers with more extensive relief from penalties associated with underpayment of ...

Mary Girsch-Bock • May. 13, 2019

AICPA Thanks Treasury and IRS for Penalty Relief

The American Institute of CPAs \(AICPA\) issued a formal thank you to both the U.S. Treasury and the IRS for providing taxpayers with more extensive relief from penalties associated with underpayment of their 2018 tax liability in response to the IRS announcement that they are lowering the threshold to qualify for penalty relief from 85 percent to 80 percent.

Edward Karl, CPA, CGMA, vice president of taxation for the American Institute of CPAs, believes that as a result of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA), and the elimination of personal and dependency exemptions, many Americans were unable to accurately estimate taxes and may have inadvertently underpaid their tax liability

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us from 71 percent a year ago. Respondents cited continuing trade tensions, a cooling economy in China, and Brexit fallout in the U.K. and European Union as the factors contributing to a sense of pessimism. In fact, 43 percent of respondents cited a global economic slowdown as their biggest concern, with respondents indicating decreased optimism about their own company's prospects for the coming year.

Angela Newell to Chair of Financial Reporting Executive Committee

The AICPA recently named Angela Newell, CPA, CGMA, Chairman of the Financial Reporting Executive Committee (FinREC), which serves as the AICPA's official voice on financial reporting matters. The committee membership currently includes representatives from business and industry, public practice and academia.

Newell, currently national assurance partner, BDO Dallas, TX, will replace outgoing chair Jim Dolinar, and will assume the chair position after the Committee's May 2019 meeting. She currently holds a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and an M.S. in Accounting from the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, AR.

AICPA Comments to IRS on Proposed Foreign Tax Credit Regulations

The AICPA recently made recommendations to the IRS about its proposed regulations Guidance Related to the Foreign Tax Credit, Including Guidance Implementing Changes Made by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA) (REG-105600-18).

Recommendations were made in the following areas:

1. Stock basis determination in connection with IRS Code section 965(b)
2. Allocation/apportionment of research and experimentation expenses
3. Stock characterization of a noncontrolled 10-percent corporation

4. Attributing current year taxes to a Controlled Foreign Corporation's earnings and

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us test. With April being National Financial Literacy Month, they have shared the following financial tips:

- Use credit cards cautiously
- It's never too early to start saving
- Do a financial checkup
- When purchasing a vehicle, plan ahead and read all of the fine print
- Have a financial emergency backup plan
- Do your homework when it comes to student loans

Visit the AICPA's 360 Degrees of Financial Literacy Website for additional tips, tools and resources.

Accounting

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved