Outreach:

The Association gives me the unique and amazing opportunity to interact with practitioners around the country from all firm sizes. Giving these CPAs a voice within the walls of the Association is so important to me. Spending time with real-life practitioners and creating a collaborative environment is critical to ensuring the Association delivers solutions that will truly have an impact.

I am also involved with the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention after suicide tragically affected our family in the past year. My husband and I are working alongside this organization to raise funds and awareness to hopefully save lives and bring hope to others affected by suicide.

Favorite books/websites/speakers that you find influential:

Picking a favorite book is so hard! I'm addicted to audible these days. My most recent read was Michelle Obama's Becoming. It's a fascinating insider's view of life in the White House. And as a mother of two girls myself, I love hearing from other working mamas on how they successfully integrate work and family.
