Weaver Expands Real Estate Practice with the Addition of Richard Edwards

National certified public accounting firm Weaver, one of the 35 largest public accounting firms in the United States, recently announced that Richard (Rick) Edwards has joined the firm to expand the depth and capabilities of its real estate service offerings. Edwards has more than 15 years of experience valuing a wide range of real estate assets across the U.S. and internationally, and will be a managing director, leading the real estate valuation group. Before joining Weaver, Edwards was the founder and managing partner of Greystone Realty Group, a Dallas-based real estate valuation and consulting firm, and a senior vice president who co-led Houlihan Lokey's real estate valuation and advisory practice, where he provided real estate valuation analysis for financial reporting, trust and estate, portfolio valuation, fairness opinions for mergers and acquisitions, and leasehold analyses. Edwards will be based in Weaver's Dallas office.
