The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) has launched a new blog, an alternate way for tax professionals and taxpayers to find important tax-related information.

The blog will cover a variety of topics, including industry updates, how-tos and frequently asked questions. In the interest of tax professionals, NATP will use this new online communication to share association news, including membership benefits and upcoming courses. The blog will also be an outlet to provide general tax education, like how to be proactive about cybersecurity and how to prepare for the
