

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us evolving profession and provide students with additional support and direction to launch a steady, meaningful career with Deloitte.

Feb. 10, 2020

Deloitte Tax LLP recently announced the formation of a multi-year initiative to encourage students at Historically Black Colleges or Universities (HBCUs) to pursue a master's degree in accounting.

The "Deloitte Tax Scholars" program will grant scholarships of up to $20,000 for up to 10 eligible students each attending HBCUs to cover tuition costs for an accredited Master of Accounting program. Deloitte Tax Scholars must successfully complete internships, accept full-time employment at Deloitte, and receive mentoring and coaching by Deloitte professionals as they complete their education and after they join the organization.

The Deloitte Tax Scholars program will attract those interested in the constantly-evolving profession and provide students with additional support and direction to launch a steady, meaningful career with Deloitte.

"Recruiting, attracting, and employing qualified individuals from all backgrounds is not only the right thing to do, it's also the smart thing to do," said Steve Kimble, chairman and chief executive officer, Deloitte Tax LLP. "Deloitte's own research shows that diverse teams often are the highest performing teams within

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

The Deloitte Tax Scholars program application process is now open and qualified junior and senior accounting students attending HBCUs are invited to apply. The first Deloitte Tax Scholars will be selected by early March.

More information: <https://www2.deloitte.com/us/en/pages/careers/articles/deloitte-tax-scholars.html>

Accounting

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved