The national accounting firm EisnerAmper participated in the NYC Department of Education and the Partnership for New York City's first-ever Career Discovery Week, held February 10-14, 2020.

More than 6,000 high school sophomores from approximately 140 schools in all five boroughs learned about a variety of exciting career opportunities at 180 participating organizations in the city's corporate, financial and cultural sectors. The Partnership for New York City represents leading companies that employ more than 1.5 million New Yorkers.

EisnerAmper hosted approximately 70 students and provided an overview of the stories and experiences.”

“It’s a great program, and I wholeheartedly encourage other companies to participate,” said Rob Levine, EisnerAmper Chief Operating Officer. “These students represent the future, and we’re thrilled to have the opportunity to share our story and listen to theirs. I’m certain that we learned as much from them as they did from us.”
