Nonprofit Organizations

Billing, collections and payment acceptance are essential functions for many nonprofits. In the current economic conditions and with widespread "social distancing" it is both more difficult and more critical for nonprofits to be able to issue ...

Mar. 16, 2020

Invoiced, an award-winning accounts receivable automation platform, will offer its solution for free to U.S. based nonprofits for up to six months. In response to sudden business impacts that businesses face as a result of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, nonprofit organizations that issue invoices and receive payments from customers, donors and other stakeholders will be able to use Invoiced at no cost until Sept. 16, 2020.

Billing, collections and payment acceptance are essential functions for many nonprofits. In the current economic conditions and with widespread "social distancing" it is both more difficult and more critical for nonprofits to be able to issue receivables and collect payments in order to maintain stable operations. Invoiced provides a cloud-based accounts receivable automation solution that connects with popular accounting systems to automate, streamline and accelerate these important functions.

Program details are as follows:

- The new program is available immediately.

Invoiced Basic includes the following features among many others:

- Invoiced A/R Management Dashboard
- An integrated customer billing portal that offers payments via direct debit, credit card, PayPal and check/wire instructions
- Automated dunning, communication and reminders
- Turnkey integration with QuickBooks Desktop, QuickBooks Online and Xero
- Invoice delivery via email, text and print/mail
- Payment/installment plans
- Late fees, early payment discounts and credit card convenience fees
- Integration with dozens of other tools like Avalara, Slack, Zapier and more
- Detailed reporting and analytics
- Email and chat-based support

More details on Invoiced Basic can be found at invoiced.com/pricing.

"Recent events throughout the world have instantly changed how every business operates. We want to do what we can to make this challenging time easier for nonprofits who may be experiencing severe effects of the current business climate," said Jared King, co-founder and CEO for Invoiced. "We hope that by offering our services for free to local, regional and national nonprofits, we'll be giving them an important tool for buoying operational efficiency and effectiveness," he added.

U.S. nonprofits who wish to enroll can do so via the following steps:

1. Sign up for a free Invoiced trial at invoiced.com/signup using the business email address. No credit card or payment method will be required at signup.
2. Connect the accounting system with Invoiced.

3. Send an email to nonprofit@invoiced.com including: – The business email used to

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us