Mar. 31, 2020

During this unique time, many CPA Exam candidates are concerned about their testing options. Although Prometric Test Centers in many parts of the world are currently closed due to the COVID-19 virus, there is some good news for those waiting to take the exam.

The AICPA, NASBA and Prometric have announced Continuous Testing for CPA Exam candidates will begin July 1, 2020. Under the new Continuous Testing model, candidates will have the ability to take the exam year-round, without restriction, rather than waiting to receive scores from prior attempts of the same section or when there is a major change to the exam. Continuous Testing will replace the existing CPA Exam Testing Window model, which only permits candidates to test during designated time frames each calendar quarter.
