UWorld Roger CPA Review, a division of UWorld, LLC, a company trusted by millions of students for high-stakes exam preparation, is taking important steps to provide assistance and guidance to the CPA exam candidate community during the COVID-19 pandemic. The company understands their responsibility to support their students and CPA candidates by giving back in a time of need.

UWorld Roger CPA Review has outlined many of the steps it is taking to meet not only the needs of their current students, but the profession as a whole. The company is distributing complimentary online tools, resources, and study plans to help candidates navigate the CPA Exam during this unprecedented global moment. They are also extending subscriptions for current students impacted by exam cancellations, and offering their four-part CPA Exam prep programs for just $1499, 50% off the retail price, now through May 4th, 2020.

“We believe quality CPA Exam preparation should be universally available. Particularly in today’s uncertain environment, there is no better time for CPA candidates to invest in their future,” said Kristin Lynes, Chief Operating Officer of UWorld Roger CPA Review. “We are committed to helping the future generation of CPAs achieve their professional goals.”
