Canopy, a cloud-based practice management platform for tax and accounting professionals, announced that the company is currently offering CPE and CE courses free of charge.

“With the closure of many in-person events this year where practitioners would normally receive CPE credits, we wanted to make this moment easier for accountants by offering our CPE and CE courses for free,” said Davis Bell, CEO, Canopy. “Each course is curated to deliver high-quality tax, accounting, and business strategy information by some of today’s leading industry experts. With requirements for ongoing education still in place during this time, we are glad to make this platform even more accessible to accounting professionals.”

As an IRS-approved continuing education provider, Canopy’s CPE and CE courses offer:

- Self-study via video – Professionals can study at their own pace with video courses or join regularly scheduled webinars Monday through Friday.
- Relevant content – A selection of the most current technical and non-technical information

- Industry-leading instructors – Experienced and engaging professionals offer a
