“The Armanino Foundation took an innovative approach in coordinating with a variety of charities to ensure that the firm could host the Great Give remotely and our people could volunteer their time and talents to worthy community causes,” said Matt Armanino, CEO of Armanino LLP. “Our employees went above and beyond this year and got into the spirit of helping out in difficult times both through virtual volunteering and donations.”

Virtual Volunteering

Through the company's “Virtual Volunteer” campaign, employees from around the country volunteered for 10 Great Give projects and organizations such as:
