organizations that serve our communities,” said Bruce Zicari, CEO, The Bonadio Group. “We’re proud to have been able to continue our Purpose Day tradition this year, supporting those who are providing critical services throughout the pandemic and beyond, while keeping our people, clients and communities safe through a virtual volunteering approach.”

Employees also had an option to donate to these organizations through a one-time payroll deduction, raising a total of $14,639, which was matched with a donation from the firm.
