PrimeGlobal has extended its reach in Asia Pacific with the addition of KAMP Accounting & Corporate Services. The firm represents a valuable new resource from Myanmar, becoming the first member from the country to join the association. KAMP Accounting & Corporate Services are an experienced firm of professionals with a passion for delivering high-quality services to clients.

Rather than be considered an outsourced entity, KAMP prefers to work alongside their clients as a strategic partner. The firm is invested in their clients' success and ensures their services remain at the highest standard by instilling a passion for consistent professional development amongst their employees.

Kyaw Thiha, Managing Partner at KAMP Accounting & Corporate Services, stated: "Our firm prides itself in providing professional services with the highest ethical standards of integrity, competency and objectivity to ensure the client's interests. As we are the first PrimeGlobal member firm from Myanmar, we look forward to sharing our knowledge about Myanmar tax regulations, financial reporting standards and investment opportunities with our fellow members."
