The Mexico accounting firm ASFICO has become the newest member in the Latin America region of PrimeGlobal.

ASFICO is richly experienced in accounting and tax matters and has cultivated long-term relationships with clients during its seventy-five years of service. The firm values trust, loyalty and an ethical approach when delivering professional services, ensuring clients receive the highest quality assistance in all accounting matters.

Sergio Fernando Zavala Castillo, Managing Partner at ASFICO, stated: "We are happy to be a part of PrimeGlobal and look forward to collaborating with fellow members as I believe these relationships are the secret to global growth and mutual success."

Estefy Pantoja, PrimeGlobal's Executive Director for Latin America said: "I am excited to welcome ASFICO as our newest PrimeGlobal member firm. ASFICO is an experienced firm with a rich history and will bring invaluable knowledge and insight to the association. They are well-respected and deliver high-quality services that are aligned with their strong values."
