THOMSON REUTERS

The award winners were selected from hundreds of submissions received by an internal team of professionals at Thomson Reuters.

Because of the new challenges brought forth by the pandemic, we added a new category this year for COVID-19 response for tax and accounting,” said Brian Peccarelli, chief operating officer of Customer Markets for Thomson Reuters. “Congratulations to all the winners – thank you for everything that you do to make those professions strong and help your clients.”

“Each year, we honor the exemplary efforts of those in tax and accounting and legal. In what has been a challenging year faced with new tests, each applicant had an interesting and unique story to tell.
