With this new integration, BQE CORE users will have access to a more streamlined payment management solution. Additional benefits include:

- Convenient payment options through online credit, debit card and eCheck/ACH processing
- Ease of invoicing with custom payment links to add to emails and websites
- Access to payment plan options through scheduled payments
- Speed of invoicing through Quick Bills generated in seconds
- Compliance and security with advanced data protection and technology standards

“AffiniPay and BQE share the same philosophy that payments and practice management software have to be designed exclusively for professionals. When a single transaction ranges in the tens of thousands of dollars, professionals need software that is designed to be secure and responsive to keep their revenue running smoothly,” said AffiniPay CEO Tom West. “We found a great partnership with BQE as we both designed our software to uniquely serve professionals from day one.”
