The Internal Revenue Service is seeking qualified applicants for nomination to the Electronic Tax Administration Advisory Committee. The ETAAC provides an organized public forum for discussion of electronic tax administration issues – such as prevention of identity theft and refund fraud – in support of the overriding goal that paperless filing should be the preferred and most convenient method of filing tax and information returns.

tax issues to apply. Applications will be accepted through March 1, 2021.

Nominations of qualified individuals may be made by letter and received from organizations or the individuals themselves. Applicants should complete the ETAAC application and include a short statement of interest and a resume. Applicants should describe and document their qualifications, past and current affiliations, and involvement with cybersecurity and electronic tax administration.

In addition, applicants must successfully complete a tax compliance check, practitioner background check and FBI criminal background check.

ETAAC is a Federal Advisory Committee established by the Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998.

Questions about the ETAAC and the application process can be e-mailed to publicliaison@irs.gov.
