Feb. 01, 2021

The regional accounting firm of Nathan Wechsler & Company, PA has announced the promotion of Matthew Nadeau, CPA, CVA, CFE.

Nadeau became familiar with Nathan Wechsler in 2009, when he first joined the firm as an intern. After graduating from college, he spent just under two years with a Big Four firm before joining the Nathan Wechsler team fulltime in 2012 as an associate. He worked hard to rise through the ranks, serving as a senior associate, supervising senior accountant, manager, and senior manager. With this promotion, which will go into effect in the summer of 2021, Nadeau takes on the role of principal. A well-rounded professional, Nadeau works on all phases of audit and tax engagements, including planning, preparing financial statements, and formulating income tax returns. He specializes in serving manufacturers and construction businesses, performing business valuations, and assisting with mergers and acquisitions.

"I am very excited for Matt! He has worked incredibly hard over the last nine years, serving his clients and pursuing success for the firm," said Oreste "Rusty" Mosca, Managing Director of Nathan Wechsler & Company, PA. "His technical acumen and eagerness to go above and beyond in pursuit of his clients' goals make him an important asset to the firm."

In 2010, Nadeau graduated from Bentley University, earning a Bachelor of Science in Corporate Finance and Accounting. He went on to study at Stetson University, graduating in 2011 with a Master of Science in Accounting. An active participant in the professional community, Nadeau is currently affiliated with the American
