LeaseQuery, a provider of comprehensive lease accounting software, has launched its LeaseManager solution. LeaseManager, able to house an unlimited number of leases free-of-charge, is a self-service lease management solution for tenants and lessees. As companies and organizations across every sector reconsider their leasing needs given the global pandemic, this new solution from LeaseQuery can help optimize the lease portfolio.

LeaseManager makes it quick and easy for tenants and lessees to manage all their real estate and equipment leases so they can avoid late payments and overpayments. It tracks leases in a central repository, generates critical alerts and provides lease abstracts for a straightforward comparison of leases, all completely free-of-charge. LeaseManager also enables businesses to accurately catalog their leases laying the foundation for a successful transition to the new lease accounting standards, FASB ASC 842, IFRS 16 and GASB 87.

“As leasing needs shift in a changing economy, it’s more important than ever to find an affordable, time-saving solution to manage leases accurately and unlock more liquidity,” said Chris Ramsey, CRO at LeaseQuery. “LeaseManager empowers confident lease administration by enabling organizations to keep track of their leases, report on current leases in real-time and make informed financial decisions.”

LeaseManager features include:

- Payment and Contract Tracking: Set automated critical date reminders about
