

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

The 2021 tax season will be filled with many questions from taxpayers and tax professionals as the IRS continues to issue guidance around complex tax topics such as PPP loans, stimulus checks, credits, deductions and more.

Feb. 10, 2021

The 2021 tax season will be filled with many questions from taxpayers and tax professionals as the IRS continues to issue guidance around complex tax topics such as PPP loans, stimulus checks, credits, deductions and more.

The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) has tax experts on staff who

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

NATP's federal tax research experts are available year-round with extended hours during tax season to answer questions from tax professionals of any background and experience.

Under a transitioning presidential administration and backlogged IRS resulting from the effects of COVID-19, NATP experts are expecting the 2021 tax season to include last-minute changes to tax law and late issued guidance from the IRS surrounding existing regulations.

The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) is the largest association dedicated to equipping tax professionals with the resources, connections and education they need to provide the highest level of service to their clients. 23,000 members rely on NATP to deliver professional connections, content expertise and advocacy that provides them with the support they need to best serve their clients. The NATP headquarters is located in Appleton, WI. To learn more, visit www.natptax.com.

Looking for a tax expert? Rhonda Collins, EA, CPA, MBA, is the director of tax content and government relations at the National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP). Collins has a diverse background of over 25 years in the industry. As a licensed CPA and EA, Collins can represent clients before the IRS. She is available for phone or video interviews to discuss federal tax topics including tax law change and its implications, taxpayer issues, tax preparer regulation and more. To schedule an interview with Collins, contact nkasten@natptax.com.

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us