proximity to an increasing number of Anchin's clients, including high net worth families and individuals served by Anchin Private Client, throughout Long Island.

Mar. 05, 2021

The accounting firm Anchin, Block & Anchin LLP, based in New York City, has opened an office on Long Island, in Uniondale, New York, on February 15, 2021. Opening the office accommodates the need for suburban space to collaborate and work together, and to meet growing marketplace demand for Anchin's strong expertise in providing companies and high net worth families with specialized business and tax guidance.

Anchin has long-served clients on Long Island and this new location will enable closer proximity to an increasing number of Anchin's clients, including high net worth families and individuals served by Anchin Private Client, throughout Long Island.

Anchin's Long Island office will also bring its Best Places to Work environment closer to its Long Island based staff and partners, while allowing the firm to attract additional local talent to the firm.

Additionally, the new office will support Anchin's ongoing efforts to reach new clients across industries. Long Island's vibrant Food and Beverage, Manufacturing and Distribution, Technology, Real Estate, Construction, and Law Firm sectors all align well with Anchin's industry capabilities and experience. The Long Island office enables Anchin to continue to expand its leadership in these growing industries, and strengthens the firm's ability to provide its signature high-touch service to such clients moving forward.

Anchin's second office exemplifies flexibility, which was a key factor in the selection
