an increased need as a result of the ongoing pandemic. Due to the economic effects of COVID-19, more than 42 million people are expected to continue experiencing food insecurity, including a potential 13 million children. “The staff of the Georgia Food Bank Association cannot find words to express how thankful we are to the remarkable team at The Georgia Society of CPAs for, once again, participating in our annual Food Fight,” said Danah Craft, Executive Director of the Georgia Food Bank Association. “We would like to congratulate Georgia’s accounting industry for raising a record-breaking amount of funds this year, making it our most successful Food Fight to date. This accomplishment is no small feat, as it will provide over 1.3 million meals to individuals and families who need it the most. The generosity of Georgia’s accounting industry both stuns and encourages us, especially during these uncertain times.”

Since its inception in 2014, the Georgia Accounting Food Fight has collectively raised $1,439,095 – the equivalent of 5,797,463 meals for the state’s food banks.
