The Indiana CPA Society's statewide 17th annual CPA Day of Service was Sept. 24, when teams from 13 companies completed 16 service projects in 10 Indiana communities: Avon, Elkhart, Goshen, Indianapolis, Lawrence, Muncie, Munster, South Bend, West Lafayette and Winona Lake.

"So many CPAs have already gone above and beyond serving individuals and businesses in the community over the past year and half," says INCPAS President & CEO Courtney Kincaid, CAE. "It is incredible to see them take additional time to help in this way."

Participating firms included CliftonLarsonAllen (CLA), Devine CPA & Co., Donovan CPAs, Grace College, Greenwalt CPAs, Insight Accounting Group, Kruggel Lawton CPAs, L.M. Henderson & Company, LLP, Lemler Group LLC, McMahon & Associates CPAs, P.C., Sherck Hussey Johnson & McNaughton, VonLehman CPA & Advisory Firm, and Whiting & Company LLC.

Organizations assisted were Brookside Community Development Corporation, Bushelcraft Farm, Carmel City Parks & Recreation, Changing Footprints, Feed the Children Elkhart County, Habitat for Humanity ReStore, Habitat for Humanity of Kosciusko County, Harbor Habitat for Humanity, Humane Society of The Calumet, Joy's House, Meals on Wheels, Motivate Our Minds, National Alliance for Mental Illness – West Central Indiana, Packaway Hunger, Tangram and St. Mary's Children Center.
