What are you doing to make a difference in the profession, your community, the world?

At the local level, I have volunteered as the treasurer for a number of Pueblo nonprofits and am currently serving as President for the Junior League of Pueblo. At the state level, I am a mentor for the COCPA's Educational Foundation Scholar Mentoring Program and am the Chair for the COCPA Young Professionals Council. At the national level, I am the Vice-Chair for the AICPA Young Member Leadership Committee and have been an applicant reviewer for the AICPA Foundation Scholarship for Future CPAs. With my volunteer work at the state and national level, I strive to promote and educate young professionals on the CPA profession and career possibilities, helping them build networks to call upon as they grow in their career.

What do you like best about the accounting profession?

That you can make a difference in the industry by volunteering for different accounting organizations, the AICPA, and your state society. There are a vast amount of options out there for a CPA and different areas of accounting, the learning never stops. But at the end of the day, we all speak the same financial language and can
