What are you doing to make a difference in the profession, your community, the world?

I am a thought leader influencing the future of the accounting profession through speaking at conferences, being on podcasts, and being featured in articles and blogs talking about diversity, equity & inclusion, and the profession's pipeline. I volunteer with the profession at a national and state level because I love helping the next generation of accountants be successful in our ever-changing profession.

Additionally, I give back to my community, serving as a Board Member on Maryland 529 to help Maryland families achieve their dreams of higher education.

What do you like best about the accounting profession?

I am so enthusiastic about the accounting profession and what it has to offer. There are vast opportunities to do engaging work. You can work in many different industries, from banking to media and entertainment to healthcare. Accountants work in academia and for not-for-profits which is what I do. Accountants even work in emerging areas such as ESG and digital transformation. I love telling any and
