Cetrom, a provider of custom Cloud Hosting Solutions for CPA firms, has been awarded Top Hosting Provider for both 'Product' and 'Company' categories by K2 Enterprises for the 7th year in a row.

The 20th Annual K2 Quality Awards are the most well-respected and longest standing awards in the accounting industry, and are determined by a poll of the K2 Enterprises instructor team. Their votes are influenced by end user feedback and experience received directly from accounting professionals during K2 Enterprises' consulting and extensive teaching efforts.

Randy Johnston, Shareholder and VP, K2 Enterprises says, "Cetrom has continued to provide high-quality hosting services demonstrating their dedication to the CPA profession."

Cetrom has been hand delivering award-winning cloud hosting solutions to CPA firms since 2001. Developed specifically with CPA Firms' unique needs in mind, each custom IT solution is backed by 100% US-based senior-level engineers who consistently deliver 5-star customer support around-the-clock. Cetrom's team of engineers pride themselves with extensive expertise in hosting and maintaining all its client's unique accounting applications. Over the past few years, Cetrom has made deep investments in several advanced IT security technologies taking an aggressive approach to combating the increasing and evolving cybersecurity climate impacting the accounting industry today.

"Cetrom is, hands down, the leader in providing high quality turnkey hosting solutions for accounting firms," said Brian Tankersley, Director, Strategic Relationships, K2 Enterprises. "Cetrom's premium hosting platform is built on an industry-leading foundation of redundant hardware, cutting-edge security, and first-class engineering, so when confronted by a pandemic and local staffing challenges, firms can support workers seamlessly regardless of where they choose to live, work,
