FASB Names New Members to Its Not-for-Profit Advisory Committee

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) today announced the appointment of seven new members to its Not-for-Profit Advisory Committee (NAC), effective January 1, 2022.

The NAC serves as a standing resource for the FASB. Its role is to obtain input from the not-for-profit sector on existing financial reporting guidance, current and proposed technical agenda projects, and longer term or pervasive financial reporting matters affecting those organizations.

The new members of the NAC are:

1. Brian Conner, Partner, Moss Adams LLP
2. Alex Galeano, Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Independent Community Bankers of America
3. Andrea Kantor, Senior Vice President, Group Head: Not-for-Profit Banking, BHI
4. Brian McAllister, Professor, University of Colorado—Colorado Springs
5. JR Miller, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Leukemia & Lymphoma Society
