association of separate and independent accounting and advisory businesses.

Jan. 18, 2022

The New York accounting firm Janover LLC has joined AGN International, an association of separate and independent accounting and advisory businesses.

Janover was established in 1938 by Richard Janover, CPA. Dedicated to being innovative, accessible, efficient and technologically sophisticated, Janover is a full-service accounting firm that delivers exceptional services to domestic and international clients. With expertise in all phases of audit and accounting, taxation, advisory and consulting, the Janover team has the breadth and depth of experience to help clients maximize savings and profit, minimize tax burdens and address even the most complex challenges.

Before joining AGN, prospective members are subject to a rigorous vetting process to assesses their structure, activities, and approaches to matters including independence, ethics, regulation and oversight. The mission of AGN is to enable its members to globally support businesses and individuals with high standards, straight forward & practical business advice and local commercial know-how, wherever the need arises.

“We are thrilled to join such a respected global association committed to high standards and client service,” said Janover managing partner Mark Goodman, CPA. “The Janover team is excited to share knowledge, exchange ideas and gain different perspectives on challenges and opportunities facing the profession. We look forward to building new relationships and learning from the AGN member community as we continually evolve our firm.”

Malcolm Ward, CEO of AGN International, added, “It’s a great pleasure to welcome
