“Two years into the COVID-19 pandemic, we are reminded of the great strides that CPAs and other accounting professionals have made to keep their organizations and their clients’ businesses afloat, but their untiring commitment to assist their fellow colleagues and give back to their towns and communities should also be appreciated,” said Ralph Albert Thomas, CPA (DC), CGMA, CEO and executive director at the NJCPA.

Nominations are being accepted until Friday, April 29. Multiple entries are allowed, as are self-nominations. Only NJCPA members are eligible for the Emerging Leader, Women to Watch and Lifetime Leader categories, but nonmembers are eligible for the other awards.

Winners will be announced on June 16 during the 2022 NJCPA Convention & Expo, which will take place June 14-17 at the Borgata in Atlantic City. For more information about the awards and to submit a nomination, go to njcpa.org/ovation.
