Mar. 02, 2022

Cetrom, a provider of custom cloud hosting solutions for CPA Firms, announced today that CRN®, a brand of The Channel Company, has named Cetrom to its 2022 Managed Service Provider (MSP) 500 list for the 11th year in the Pioneer 250 category. This annual list recognizes forward-thinking North American solution providers that deliver operational efficiencies, IT system improvements, and a higher rate of return on investments for their customers by enabling them to shift focus back on core business.

With the rise of remote work and teleworking demands due to the pandemic combined with increased global cybersecurity threats, migrating to the cloud has proven to be an effective way for CPA firms to adapt to evolving market changes. With many firms struggling to hire and retain top talent while trying to fulfill client obligations, IT providers like Cetrom are recognized for working tirelessly to guide their customers and create advanced solutions to help solve complex business

On top of a wide-span of best-in-breed IT solutions and security technologies, Cetrom's dedicated team of engineers is available 24/7/365. The Cetrom Support team closely monitors local client environments and workstations to ensure optimal performance and security while continuing to provide its customers with five-star rated customer service excellence and support.

"In addition to having to adjust their own business operations to account for the changed conditions during the pandemic, MSPs have also seen increased demand for their managed communications, collaboration, and security services," said Blaine Raddon, CEO of The Channel Company. "The solution providers on our 2022 MSP 500 list deserve credit for their innovative and game-changing approaches to managed services in these unpredictable times, as well as their ability to optimize operational efficiencies and systems without straining IT budgets."

"We're honored to be recognized by The Channel Company's CRN Pioneer 250 category on the MSP 500 list for the 11th year," said Christopher Stark, president, and CEO of Cetrom. "This has to be one of the most critical and challenging times in the IT industry, but what fuels our passion is the essential services and solutions we provide our customers every day. It's truly rewarding knowing that we are making a difference in our client's day-to-day operations by providing better remote flexibility, stronger security, and reliable service and support. We stand by that mission every day."

The MSP500 list will be featured in the February 2022 issue of CRN and online at www.CRN.com/msp500.
