BPM LLP, one of the 40 largest public accounting and advisory firms in the country, intends to expand its footprint in Northern California, adding a Sacramento office through a combination with Avaunt Ltd. CPAs and Consultants expected to be complete August 1. This news follows BPM's recent announcement of its upcoming combination with Santa Rosa, Calif.-based Elliott CPA Group Inc. expected for July 1.

"As a firm, BPM is committed to meeting clients where they are, which is why we are so pleased Avaunt plans to join us, providing an office and top-notch resources in California's capital city," said BPM North Bay Partner-in-Charge Michelle Muth Ausburn. "Throughout their long history in the market, Perry, Dorothea and their team have demonstrated a people-first approach much like BPM's. Our deep relationships and business connections are instrumental to helping our clients get established, grow and mature."
