The line of service that received the biggest influx of new partners is assurance with 344, followed by 265 in consulting, 235 in tax, 171 in strategy and transactions, and 18 in business support.

EY mentioned that 32 percent of the 1,033 new partners are female, so approximately 330 women received this promotion.

There currently are more than 312,250 EY employees in more than 150 countries around the world.
