small lease portfolios.

Jul. 14, 2022

EZLease, a maker of lease accounting software, is now offering a free, full-function lease management system for private and government organizations managing small lease portfolios. Resource-constrained organizations now have a free way to experience the fastest path to long-term lease accounting compliance.

The new free pricing tier, the Essential plan, is for organizations with up to nine leases and provides:

- Automated lease validation and classification
- Rich knowledgebase of how-to videos and support articles
- Self-service bulk import
- Asset contract tracking
- Transition accounting
- Export of ERP-ready data
- Lease subledger with configurable account mapping
- Access for two users through a secure cloud application

According to a recent EZLease survey which asked private and government organizations about their lease accounting compliance hurdles, most organizations noted they are resource-constrained and spreadsheet-dependent. Many organizations turn to spreadsheets initially for lease accounting compliance, but almost all soon struggle to keep up with changes and ongoing complexity. Most also
