CohnReznick LLP, one of the leading advisory, assurance, and tax firms in the United States, today announced that it has been named to the ABF Journal's Most Innovative Companies in Specialty Finance list for the second consecutive year.

This is the third year the publication has produced their list which celebrates 30 companies based on five "innovator categories" to distinguish how each company is standing out from the competition. CohnReznick is included in the Current category which is defined as "a company setting the tone for the present state of the industry through its innovation."

"At CohnReznick, innovation infuses every purposeful and intentional action we take. When we focus on enhancing the digital and data literacy of our talent, we equip them with the tools necessary to help our clients exceed their business goals and objectives," said Tama Huang, Chief Innovation Officer, CohnReznick.

"Embracing automation allows us to align our human capital with the velocity of advancements in emerging technologies." "Technology-focused solutions are central
