

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us stay on top of their tax obligations and hope that they find solutions on their own.

Aug. 29, 2022

Sales tax laws have always been unpredictable, and especially so following the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in South Dakota v. Wayfair, Inc. Your clients are likely feeling the accompanying confusion and frustration of keeping up with constantly changing rules and new tax obligations.

As a trusted advisor, you can do more than encourage your clients to stay on top of their tax obligations and hope that they find solutions on their own. Connect with your clients on sales tax issues before the frustration sets in.

Read this guide to get tips and advice for adding a service line for your practice.

- Provide greater client value and open new revenue-generating service lines with

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved